Rose's Speech

When Mittens died my heart almost broke. I cried many tears, but I knew that she had died and I mustn't cry. She is in heaven. God chose her to die then. Don't think I don't love her because I'm not crying. I am ~~straw~~ ~~struggling~~ struggling right now. I am trying to be a man, and be happy because she is in ~~the~~ heaven, not in hell. Mittens was an excellent wife. She never got angry, well too angry. She had a sweet temper and the heart of a young girl. She was playful. She was the best wife a man could have. I hope my daughters become like her. She had enough courage to flee Communists, marry me, and have and ~~for~~ care for 15 children. We all miss her deeply and hope she is having the best time ever. Her favorite Bible verse was Psalm 23 and Proverbs 31:28, "Her children arise up, and call her blessed; her husband also, and he praiseth her."
